3rd January 2024

Happy New Year to you. I hope you enjoyed your Christmas break.

Advent and Christmas was such a lovely time, with so many wonderful things happening. One of the highlights was the carol singing on Wednesday 20th December. Certainly we were blessed by the community when the owners of Raaja's Grill came out with a large box of chips for us to share. This was much appreciated and it was even before we started to sing! Other people came out of the shop next door to take photos and ask us to sing their particular favourite carol. We walked round to Derek's house and he came out to sing with us. I have enclosed the rest of the photos for you to see.
